Gaynor positively denied all her accusations. Incidentally, he said that if his business associates were not "college graduates" they were "good seemis".

ALMOST A WRANGLE IN U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Trust Counsel Hornblower Resents What He Regarded as an Accusation of Misquoting.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.-During the arguments in the Tobacco Trust cases yesterday the United States Supreme Court witnessed the nearest approach to a wrangle that is possible within its pre-cincts. Special Counsel McReynolds for the Government and William B. Horn-blower for the British To-acco Trust approached the point of a personal altercation.

Mr. McReynolds complained to the court that he found g eat difficulty in relying on the briefs filed as present-ing a correct statement of the case. He ing a correct statement of the case. He read from Mr. Hornblower's brief that in 1800 the exports of Ametican tobacco aggregated "about a million pounds." He said this was a misapprehension of the evidence, which showed that the exports during that year were approximately 3,000,000 pounds.

"Does counsel accuse me of misquotation?" inquired Mr. Hornblower with a parceptible tremble in his voice.

tation? inquired Mr. Hernblower with a perceptible tremble to his voice.

"Gentlemen!" exclaimed Chief Justice White.

"Well, I am very sensitive about it." said Mr. Hornblower with emphasis.

"I said a "misapprehension," not a "misquotation," explained Mr. McReynolds.

Mr. Hornblower, who had remained

Mr. Hornblower, who had remained standing, scowled at Mr. McReynolds but sat down when the Chief Justice assured him that he would have time and opportunity later to make his own reply.

MR. TAFT'S OWN BILL FOR A SHIP SUBSIDY.

New Measure Provides for Atlantic but Not Pacific Coast Service to South America.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.-A brand new Ship Subsidy bill, labelled as the genuine Administration measure, was introduced in the Senate yesterday by Mr. Gallinger. He will explain its provisions Wednesday and gave notice that soon there-after he hoped a final vote could be reached.

reached.

The revised bill eliminates from present consideration all trans-Pacific lines, and applies only to the establishment of ocean mail services on routes to Brazii, Uruguay, Argentina, Chill and Peru.

The provision that if there is more than one line from the North Atlantic coast to South America one of the lines shall touch at at least one point south of Cape Charles for mail, passengers and freight on the outward and homeward passages is retained in the bill because it is particularly desired to serve the new commerce which the canal will open from the Southern States.

A new provision in the bill forbids the

A new provision in the bill forbids the award of any contract for an ocean mail line to any bidder engaged in competitive transportation by rail or in the business of exporting or importing merchandies on his own account.

Another new provision requires the Postmaster-General to award the contracts for the ocean mail service to responsible bidders offering the highest running speed. The total expenditure in any one year under the bill is not to exceed the sum of $4,000,000, *
